

Dementia: Engaging the Person in Meaningful Activities

This is to certify that

Has successfully achieved the learning outcomes indicated below:

Course Viewing Date:

Active learning hours

Learning outcomes:

- Outline what is meant by meaningful engagement and activity for people living with dementia
- Understand the connection between meaningful activity and a person's emotional, psychological and physical wellbeing
- Describe the key themes and practical approaches that support meaningful engagement and activity provision

Essential Assessment Date:

Active learning hours

Learning outcomes:

- Outline what is meant by meaningful engagement and activity for people living with dementia
- Understand the connection between meaningful activity and a person's emotional, psychological and physical wellbeing
- Describe the key themes and practical approaches that support meaningful engagement and activity provision

Extension Assessment Date:

Active learning hours

Learning outcomes:

- Outline what is meant by meaningful engagement and activity for people living with dementia
- Understand the connection between meaningful activity and a person's emotional, psychological and physical wellbeing
- Describe the key themes and practical approaches that support meaningful engagement and activity provision

Evidence Assessment Date:

Active learning hours

Learning outcomes:

- Outline what is meant by meaningful engagement and activity for people living with dementia
- Understand the connection between meaningful activity and a person's emotional, psychological and physical wellbeing
- Describe the key themes and practical approaches that support meaningful engagement and activity provision

Coordinator Name:

Signature:

Position:

Organisation:

Date:

