

Dementia: Engaging the Person in Meaningful Activities

Staff Member's Name:

Assessor's Name:

Date:

Think about the different people that you care for who are living with dementia. Keep a diary for ten days detailing:

- the different ways in which you engage and interact with each person
- the strategies you employed to promote interaction and engagement
- the reactions and responses you got from the people involved
- in what ways you shared this information with your team

Do not include any personal or identifying information; ensure you do not breach the privacy of your clients.
