

Evidence

Dementia: An Introduction

Guide for Completing Evidence Assessment

The purpose of this assessment is for the staff member to demonstrate safe and competent practice when caring for a person living with dementia, whilst working within organisational guidelines, policies and procedures.

In order to complete this assessment, resources in addition to the corresponding ACC course may be required to demonstrate this knowledge.

The assessment should be conducted by an assessor who is familiar with dementia and is competent in caring for people living with dementia.

DISCLAIMER:

Except where otherwise stated, scenarios depicted in this course are fictional and any resemblance to any person or event is purely coincidental. The information in this course has been prepared as general information only. It is not intended to provide legal, industrial or other specialist advice and should not be relied upon as such. All advice and information are professionally sourced and provided in good faith and, while all care has been taken, no legal liability or responsibility is accepted for any possible error. For direction concerning your particular circumstances, independent advice should be sought. Copyright 2017. The contents of these Learning Resources remain the property of ACC. They are for the exclusive use of current members of ACC; their use, distribution, and storage are subject to the terms and conditions laid out in Membership Agreements.